DETAILED ACTION

1. This Office Action is in response to RCE received 26 January 2006, and Amendments and Remarks received 22 November 2005. Per Applicant's request, claims 1, 6, 11, and 16 are amended. Claims 1-28 are pending.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-28 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

As Applicant has noted in Remarks received 5/24/2005 (page 15, last paragraph – page 16 2nd paragraph), regarding the present invention, the conversion of XML into ASN.I is executed by referring to a Document Type Definition (DTD) which is neither taught nor suggested in Imamura. The architecture of the ASN.I to XML translator (section 4.2 spanning pages 61-62 of Imamura) is not the same as the XML encoding method of the present invention of Figure 1 and the XML, decoding method of the present invention. Imamura does not teach a parsing step to remove the XML content text of a syntactic element and subsequent compressing the contents of the syntactic element as set forth in Claim 1 for combination with an ASN.I transfer syntax. Imamura does not teach or suggest the generation of an ASN.I abstract transfer syntax value that is combined with the compressed XML element content (text) data to form the encoded XML.

Imamura and other cited prior art, taken alone or in combination, fail to disclose”

Art Unit: 2191

“separating said XML data into contents comprising text of a syntactic element and a structure representing the syntactic element comprising an element name including the structure...compressing said text contents of said syntactic element, and combining the compressed text contents of said syntactic element and said ASN.1 transfer syntax to thereby generate encoded XML data.”

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
